മുഖ്യമന്ത്രിയുടെ മുൻനിരയിലാണ് സഹായം നൽകിയ തമിഴ്നാട് സൗജന്യ ഹൃദയശസ്ത്രക്രിയ

Now, taking note of her noble gesture, the Sree Chitra Tirunal Institute for Medical Sciences and Technology (SCTIMST), in Thiruvananthapuram has offered to do Akshaya's surgery which would have cost her Rs 2.5 lakhs for free.

"We learned that she had donated a portion of the money that she saved for her surgery towards Kerala relief fund. We are trying to track her and help her with the surgery," SCTIMST director Dr Asha Kishore told The Times of India.

Tamil Nadu Girl Donates Money for Her Heart Surgery Towards Flood Relief, Kerala Hospital Offers Free Treatment

Seeing the havoc that wrecked Kerala earlier this month, a 12-year-old girl from Tamil Nadu donated a part from her surgery money to flood relief. Akshaya who hails from Karur district had collected money for her heart operation through crowdfunding but she was moved by the disaster that people of Kerala were witnessing. She gave Rs 5,000 from Rs 20,000 she had collected for her surgery. Blanket Merchant Vishnu, Who Went to Sell
